

Amulet Of Pateque

750 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Height : 5,3

Depth : 3,3

Description

Egyptian earthenware - Low Period. Pateque was on crocodiles (absent due to breakage). On his shoulders are 2 hawks and holds a snake in each hand and his skull is covered by a beetle. he is leaning against a stele engraved with the goddess Isis, horned with horns and the solar disk. A similar copy can be found at the Mariemont Museum (B.463) [Egyptian Antiquities at the Royal Museum of Mariemont, page 238]

Dealer

Artelios

Works of art from Prehistory to the present day & Graphic Arts

Tel : 003242233055

Mobile : 0032495228082

Rue Soeurs-de-Hasque 8-10

Liège 4000