Description

Very beautiful banquette of Louis XV style, manufacture mid nineteenth, three places. Beautiful woodwork richly carved decorations foliage and flowers. Satin garnet color garnet (note, some discolorations, see photos). The barrel is in very good condition, the backrest is in a good state of house, however the springs being original, the seat no longer has the desired firmness and will require a refection in the optics of intensive use . However, if this seat is used in decoration, the seat can remain completely in the state.
