

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Painting René Le Forestier (1903-1972) The Fountain Of The Escarene Near Nice

260 EUR

Signature : René le Forestier (1903-1972)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Dans son jus

Material : Oil painting

Length : 46

Height : 55

Description

Table René le Forestier representing a view of the village escarene where we see the fountain.

L'escarène is a town located not far from Nice, in Alpes-Maritimes and the provence region, alps and cote d'azur.

this oil on canvas painted around 1930 with a knife is sold in the state, to clean.

the frame is optional at 220 euros extra.

possible delivery in colissimo recommended for 20 euros in France.

René Le Forestier, born in Pontivy in 1903, died in Concarneau in 1972, is a French painter who lived in Concarneau and painted especially Brittany. Originally trained as a hairdresser, René Le Forestier was a pupil of Arthur Midy and settled in Concarneau 14, place Saint-Guénolé where he held an art gallery, in the heart of the

Dealer

A Brocannique

Antique dealer, Asian and world antiquities

Tel : 0297253637

Mobile : 0664293786

19 rue de la motte

Pontivy 56300

"closed city" that he painted abundantly. Painter of great talent, he also made a lot of "food painting", that is to say, small format quickly painted, but within reach of all budgets. The many scenes of life that he represented are valuable testimonies on life in Brittany in the middle decades of the twentieth century.