Description

18th century Dutch floor clock movement with 6 tunes of music on demand, training hammers by a cylinder on 18 bells, dial indicating six tunes, troteuse seconds, hour and minute hands, it sounds the desired melody on the 18 bells and then rings the time on a separate bell, ditto for half! the escapement is anchored. This movement is in perfect working order, delivered by hand only too heavy to ship (risk of breakage!).
