Description

Yet he was upside down, half hidden by a table and, in the dim light of the early morning, on this flea market, I saw only him ...

A formula that I sometimes use for some of my works: "of light with a little paint around ! This undergrowth of fir trees, crossed by a path dotted with gaps of light makes you want to go for a walk. Painted on hard cardboard, roughly studded to a handcrafted frame, it is unfortunately not signed, but it made me think about the time to the old works of Ivan Ivanovich Shishkin (1838-1898), the famous Russian painter, but since then I Find him closer to artists like Max Liebermann, the German Impressionist (1847-1935) ... It's up to you to continue the research !

Oil on hard cardboard 82 X 67 cm, in the state,
