Maurice Flavion (1909 - 1986).

Painter, watercolourist, gouachist. Studies at the School of Art of Charleroi and the School of Music of Montignies-sur-Sambre. Geometric style close to abstraction that is sometimes related to cubism. Painter of landscapes, still lifes, compositions with musical instruments, views of ports and coastline. Evolves towards lyrical abstraction inspired by landscape and imaginary metropolises. Exhibition in Thuin, with Thudinie artists in 1957 - 1958 and in Namur at the Meuse gallery in 1962.
