Fantin Latour Theodore (1805 - 1875)

5 800 EUR

Signature : Fantin Latour Theodore (1805 - 1875)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Good

Material : Pastel

Description

FANTIN LATOUR Theodore (1805 - 1875) "Young Lady dressed with middle-age suit" Pastel on card signed low right Old original gilded frame with leaves Pastel dim: 80 X 63 cm Dim frame: 94 x 77 cm FANTIN LATOUR Theodore (1805 - 1875) French pastellist painter Born in Metz in 1805. Died in Paris on April 20th, 1875 He is the father of the painter Henri Fantin-Latour. Endowed for drawing and painting, Theodore Fantin-Latour studies in the workshop of the painter of History Benjamin Rolland (1777-1855) at the Art School of Grenoble. Under the influence of his teacher (himself a student of Jacques-Louis David), disciple of neoclassicism, Fantin Latour became master of drawing and forms rendering. In 1834, he gets married with the daughter of the countess

Dealer

Galerie Claudie Alberio
Paintings 19th century and Post-Impressionism
Tel : 01 40 11 17 93
Mobile : 06 08 93 61 43

85 rue des Rosiers - Marché Biron
Saint-Ouen 93400

Zoloff, Hélène de Naidenoff, with whom he has three children, including future painter Henri Fantin-Latour born in 1836. Recognizing the talent of his young son, he will be his first drawing teacher by 1846. Théodore Fantin-Latour exhibited regularly at the Salon between 1842 and 1866 Bibliography: o Druick, Douglas and Michael Hoog, Fantin-Latour, exhibition catalog, National Gallery of Canada, Ottawa, 1983. o E.Benezit, Dictionary of the painter & sculptors, Ed Grund