Description

Office slope wavy cherry, curved facade and movement on three sides. It has a frieze flap and opens with three drawers belt in molded frames. It rests on four curved, molded, sculpted feet terminated by windings. The low crosses are molded scrolls and carved flowers and leaves. The sides are three flat panels. The flap discovers five curved drawers and a small slippery panel concealing a cover.

Fogged iron compass, brass trim and locks of the original drawers.

Leather changed but old and weathered, as well as the lock of the flap.

Very nice condition, an unusual curly cherry and a neat workmanship.

Louis XV period
