Description

Very large mahogany bookcase from the early nineteenth in two bodies and 12 glass doors in high and low parts. This library is entirely in its original state (we have only made the varnish with the old stamp). Cuban mahogany is mounted on oak and of a remarkable quality. The windows are original as well as the locks. All the rays are mounted on racks and the fields are plated mahogany. Furniture of a rare construction and very elegant. Dimensions: 4.65 m long and 2.87 m high.
