Description

South China or Southeast Asia, 19th century, very nice carved boxwood statuette depicting the drunken poet. Presented in a reclining position and in a state of obvious euphoria, the drunken poet holds in each hand a chimerical head. The quality of the sculpture and the style of the work is very similar to the Japanese okimonos. The eyes are in glass. Good condition if not a lack of a chimera head, without affecting the beauty of the room. Dimensions: Length 16 cm. Width 6 cm. Height 5.5 cm. We take special care of our packaging by the use of optimum protection. The shipment is done with insurance included. Shipping rates: Metropolitan France: 18 euros, European Union countries and Switzerland: 25 euros, Eastern Europe and Maghreb countries: 45 euros, United States, Australia, the United States
