Description

Framed painting very unusual because of the painted scene that encompasses multiple symbolic. We can see a devil who is holding an object with on the top a small sign marked "12" and down, 2 hands scratching the head of a woman, a satire who seems keeping a vulva, a skeleton with a position of demand, a dog with a very long tongue and around it a snake, and for finish in the middle of the painting women probably of "little virtues".
Perhaps a theme around the 7 deadly sins. Even though this painting is not signed, it is definitely very interesting and will be ideal for an offbeat decoration or in a cabinet of curiosities.

Condition: Canvas: very good condition. Frame: some cracks in the painting of the frame. THE
