

Embroidery, Resonance Of The Expo Japonism Of The Museum Of Decorative Arts

860 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silk

Length : 73 cm

Width : 73 cm

Description

In resonance At the exhibition on Japan and Japonism at the Museum of Decorative Arts: Inspired Object, 1867-2018, I put on sale this very beautiful Japanese embroidery of silk threads and gilded threads, on a background of silk blue night, She represents carp on a background of waves' subject of predilection in the Japanese decorative arts of the early twentieth century, these same Carps being widely represented at the exhibition of the Museum of Decorative Arts. Our silk panel is in very good condition, beautifully framed in an art deco frame enhanced with a golden baguette, work early twentieth, JAPAN

Dealer

Antiquités Chanel

Antiquités Objets éclectiques et petits mobiliers

Tel : 06 71 08 33 05

Chanel.antiquites@gmail.com

Paris 75000