

Carved Wood Angel Head

550 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Restauration d'usage

Material : Solid wood

Width : 29 cms

Height : 40 cms

Description

Ornamental element probably from an altar and having a chubby face, with massive and beautifully eventful hair. This head of angel is wrapped in a large carved flange going up on both sides of the face and ends in the framing of 2 wings (restoration of the stretch.) It rests on a base of volutes ample and protruding revealing a work of nervous sculpture and quality.
