

Empire Etruscan Clock, Dial Signed Roy à Paris

5 500 EUR

Signature : Simon Roy

Period : 19th century

Condition : Restauré par notre atelier

Material : Bronze

Length : 22cm

Width : 14cm

Height : 44cm

Description

Strange pendulum in gilded and patinated bronze consists of a patinated trapeze - decorated gilded bronze sconces with grotesque decorations, which we find by Percier and Fontaine - the bust and feet of a woman wearing an antique hat appear.

Dial signed Roy in Paris, Simon Roy died in 1809, several pendulums movement kept at Mobilier National bear his signature.

Conditions report: Restored and revised by our watchmaker Mr. Bianchi in Metz. Warranty 2 years An identical clock is illustrated on page 383 of the Encyclopedia of the French Pendulum by Pierre Kjellberg.

The François Duesberg museum in Mons keeps an identical model.

Dealer

Igra Lignum

Art pieces of the 18th and 19th centuries (including Empire)

Mobile : +41 79 694 09 04 FR DE IT EN RU

Belfaux CH-1782