Description

Moustiers earthenware dish of elongated shape with twelve hollow pieces of goldsmith's work. Fine polychrome decoration of great fire with solanées and butterflies. In the median part of the basin beautiful and harmonious composition in bouquet of solanées flower flowers and buttons in a cartridge of butterflies with outstretched wings and equidistant solanées boots. The wing is adorned with masses of solanées overflowing on the marli, bordering polychrome nets with wolf teeth. Clerissy workshop from the first half of the 18th century. Very good condition, small old invisible restorations.
