

Meissen Musician Bagpipe

1 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : L'extrémité de la cornemuse est recollée

Material : Porcelain

Height : 11,5 cm

Description

Statuette of girl playing the Meissen porcelain bagpipe with natural polychrome decoration, with on the dress a seedling of Indian flowers, barefoot. This subject comes from a set form a music band. Mark in blue with two crossed swords. Engraved number under base 23. Kandler model after Boucher. Circa 1755-1760. Height: 11.5 cm. Bagpipe end glued back.

Dealer

JM BEALU & FILS

Old ceramics

Tel : 01 45 48 46 53

3 rue du Bac

Paris 75007