Pair Of Directoire Engravings

1 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Pair of charming Directoire style engravings from the early nineteenth century to 1800 depicting scenes in the antique drawn respectively by Cazenave and Firmin, both engraved by Augrand and bearing the words "Save to the National Library". They are each titled and marked by the publisher: A Paris at Bonnefoy street high leaf N ° 36 Good framings period gilded wood. Correct condition of presentation, to note some usual spots and wear to the frames. They measure exactly 45 cm X 34 cm.

Dealer

Galerie Tramway

marchand d'art, gestion du patrimoine

Mobile : 06.65.52.05.40

D-751

Amboise 37400