Post-Impressionist. He was pupil of A de Richemont, Luc - Olivier Merson, but it's his second master Emile Dameron that he wished his taste for landscapes anecdotal it animates crowds peasants, fishermen and boats, rocky coasts and processions, landscapes, marine and scenes of life Bretonne, this is the directory of folk Brittany that nourishes his work with an assured technique that is the faithful mirror of the fervor of the painter for life daily Bretonne. Exhibiting at the Salon of French artists from 1909, he received an honourable mention in 1909, a reference to money in 1921, became an associate, received a gold medal in 1935 and was ranked exhibition in 1939. Painter of landscapes, he was awarded the prize of the association of French landscape.
