Description

Beautiful composition of a beautiful bouquet of flowers in accumulation of shells placed in an openwork basket made of colored cardboard.
each flower of this basket is a very beautiful work of accumulation of shells: each flower is different in the color and in the selection of selected shells.
the whole rests on a frame of metal threads covered with green tissue paper and placed in a basket of perforated cardboard and painted in red with ornaments of shells on the periphery.
the whole in good condition with quite little lack given the age of this composition.
it is placed under its original globe.
very nice work of the nineteenth century, probably a religious work.
