Description

Bouille-style table, France, 19th century
Magnificent round table in the Bouille style, crafted in ebonized wood with gilt bronze mounts and an exceptionally rich inlaid top with polychrome marbles. The circular tabletop is elaborately decorated with floral and foliate motifs arranged in radiating symmetry around a central medallion, in the manner of pietra dura. The turned central shaft rests on three scrolled legs, all adorned with finely chiseled gilt bronze appliques, including garlands, bows, masks, and cartouches. The dramatic contrast between the polished black wood and the brilliance of the gilding gives this piece a noble, theatrical elegance, typical of the Napoleon III aesthetic. A decorative masterpiece that combines the opulence of French Baroque taste with the
