Description

Iron topiary representing a classical style house front. Architectural front with a two floors elevation. Central projection part, welcoming a door topped by a semi-circular bay and two crosspieces windows with a similar pattern, smaller, at the upper floor. The projection part is framed by chains and crowned by a triangular pediment. On every side of the front, baies passantes raise.

Gable roof adorned with two roof dormers with a policeman cap arch.

Work realized during the 1970's.

A topiary is a structural item serving to the vegetal sculpture art in order to adorn gardens with decorative shapes.
