Period : 20th century

Condition : Restauré par notre atelier

Diameter : 67 cm

Description

Important chandelier with a structure entirely in bronze and decorated with crystal pendants.

Work early twentieth century.

It consists of 9 arms of lights, 6 arms forming torches with bulbs visible upwards and 3 others where the lighting is a little more recessed and is completely concealed by garlands of tassels. This allows for full lighting in a room, since bulbs are directed towards the ceiling, but also towards the floor.

All our lights are fully restored by our workshop, both in terms of structure, pendants, and electricity and are therefore in perfect condition of presentation and operation.
