Description

Beautiful Renaissance credenza in acacia depicting theatrical scenes under the cabinet and on the sides. Very beautiful panels carved on the doors of the top. Inside an adjustable shelf on racks and in the upper part a coat of arms with the initials AB. The amounts are carved with laurel leaves. Near the drawers are heads of faunas and very pretty shells. The columns in the lower part are carved. Downstairs in the theater, the marquetry is called cubes (to represent a parquet trompe l'oeil) and very beautiful draperies representing curtains are held by embraces.
