Description

Pair of large and beautiful armchairs, called "the Queen", beech molded and carved with flowers. Armrest noses are volute and arched supports. The belt is scalloped and the feet curved. The tapestry is in good condition. Stamped both on the back post with punch Jurande JME. Period Louis XV XVIII century. Dimensions: H: 93 L: 64 P: 59. Henr AMAND, carpenter seats, becomes Master on November 17, 1749. Of this cabinetmaker, we can especially mention seats Louis XV, beautiful proportions and beautifully crafted office chairs, armchairs to the Queen carved with carriages and florets, elegant sofas decorated with Rocaille motifs. The stamp of Henri AMAND is affixed most of the time on one of the rear amounts of the file. This is the case for each of these chairs.
