PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Scepter Shango Yoruba From Nigeria

735 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 60

Width : 16

Depth : 8

Description

.An oshe shango, or wand of dance, is worn by the faithful at the annual festival of Shango, the god of thunder and lightning. The double-bladed pattern on the head of the figure represents a thunderbolt, coupled with Shango's sudden, overwhelming and unpredictable power. The female figure who casts lightnings on her head represents a devotee of the god. Rare scepter from an important collection of high quality.

Dealer

Complément d'objets

sciences, ethnical, naturalia, artificialia, didactical items, curiosities

Tel :

Mobile : 00 32 477 450 595

Wemmel 1780