Description

Pair of armchairs from the 25-30 years. Certainly Lloyd Loom, paper chairs wrapped around a wire, braids around the edges, labels have disappeared. The technique is renowned for its extreme strength. Very original model, drawing very 30 to see the sides, the square sections of the armrests and the backrest, the feet and noticeably the back feet. They are greenish gray or antique bronze. Very good condition, the resistance is not undermined, very comfortable. Slight wear on an armrest and lack on a seat that does not compromise its strength visible in the photos. The aesthetics of these armchairs make it an element of decoration both inside and out. Seat height: 39 cm.
