Description

OUH! LALA !!
It took a lot of research to make his true identity to this artist! Fortunately for me, Mr. Gilles Chambon has developed a very interesting blog where Internet users have come to make their contribution to the building: it is in fact Etienne Robert (1875-1959), that the auctioneers baptize Emile under whose name it is found in the databases, when it is not under its namesake sculptor s!
Born in Switzerland, which explains why one often finds there works, he settles in Marseilles from where he radiated all over Provence and the Côte d'Azur to seek these landscapes flooded with light which are his specialty .
The painting presented here shows a donkey going up a path, probably coming back from the
