

Enamel Medallion Around 1900

380 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Enamel

Diameter : 10 cm

Description

Very beautiful enamel depicting a portrait of a young woman around 1900, a little before perhaps, reminiscent of the representation of women by Henner, Alsatian painter. At the height of the bodice, the red dots are in relief. This enamel is set in a pretty golden frame, beaded and openwork with flower motifs. It is in good condition, to note, however, two feasts always in the part of the bodice. overall diameter with frame 10 cm diameter of enamel: 6.5 cm

Dealer

Forezienne d'antiquités

Antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 73 22 83 89

10 bis avenue de la libération

Montbrison 42600