Description

Important pair of XIXth century gilt bronze and crystal sconces with three lights. The wall part is decorated with ram heads, foliage, garlands and Greek frieze. The upper part is in the shape of a firepot with a rosette and a crystal pendant. The lower part ends in ears of wheat. The arms of light in slender bronze in the shape of cross and volutes are carved with foliage and rosettes where are installed rows of crystals, rosettes and tassels. The bobèches carved with small garlands of pearls rest on a cup decorated with tassels and are surmounted by a small cup with a row of pearls which receives the candles in white opaline. This pair has been cleaned by a specialist and gilding is original. She was also electrified.
