

Saucer In Earthenware Marseille End Eighteenth Widow Perrin

1 900 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

Rare porcelain earthenware saucer of the late eighteenth by the workshop of the Widow Perrin, with rich decor featuring the three orders of the Kingdom. Nobles in Provencal landscapes or in front of their castle, ecclesiastics in discussion with the same aristocratic characters, and peasants putting the wine in barrels. Fretel shaped snail, golden fillets on the edges, and mark "VP" golden below. Very interesting piece by its finesse and subject. Little fries on the body of the carer, at the level of the spoon rest. L: 23.5 cm W: 16 cm H: 12 cm
