Description

This beautiful vase from the manufacture of Creil and Montereau is unusual in its size of more than 50 cm and its Japanese decor inspired by the work of Imari, in more geometric forms, the vase is hexagonal shape. The whole set is embellished with gold leaf. The vase is signed with a stamp of Creil and Montereau Gold Medal 1844-1849 Leboeuf and Millet. Manufacture de Montereau 1745-1955 In 1819, the owner of the Creil factory bought the Montereau factory. In 1834 it was the event of opaque porcelain since the Montereau factory is rewarded for the quality of its production and its cost. For more information, please feel free to contact us.
