Description

Curious modernist lamp named Calmortorn composed of a household electrical appliances assembly 50s, a radiant brand Calor acting as a reflector heating, waxy brand Mors acting up and a vacuum cleaner brand Tornado acting against body weight. The electrical control of this lamp is the former vacuum switch. These three elements are adjustable in height and tilt. They are composed mainly of chromium but also of wood and bakelite. The average height such that the lamp is shown in the photos is 170 cm. This lamp is in good condition, no bite chromium. Normal wear on the wooden handles of waxy. It is a unique piece. Calmortorn name is composed of the first syllables of the three brands combined.
