Description

Beautiful old painting, oil on canvas signed lower left of the monogram of Charles Guérin, cons-signed on the back, representing the portrait of a young woman with pink ribbon fuchsia, sitting on a stool, legs and hands crossed, in front of a stove on which rests an enamelled pan. The young woman is sitting in profile. Dressed in a long red sweater, black skirt and polished red shoes, she turns her face to the right and looks at the painter / spectator. In the background, a blue pitcher, a water glass and a deep plate, are placed on a support table. On the wall, a slightly offset table responds to the stove's protection plate in a set of vertical lines while the model in the center of the table softens the whole by the curvature of its posture. Very nice intimate atmosphere for this workshop scene, realized by this renowned
