Ewer Dutch Glass White

470 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage, fêlé (visible sur photo)

Diameter : 16 cm

Height : 22 cm

Description

Eighteenth century bottle called "Dutch ball"
White glass decorated on the body of alternating stylized birds and vine branches.

The neck is decorated with stylized floral patterns.

On the body, several glass gobs were applied hot and shaped with pliers to form moldings showers.

Dealer

Galerie Pellat de Villedon
French furnitures of the 17th & 18th centuries
Mobile : 06 07 57 01 20

2 bis rue Carnot
Versailles 78000