Description

Very large decorative dish in Limoges porcelain entirely hand painted in shades of blue, from Paul Pastaud decoration workshops. The back of the dish bears the inscription: "decoration entirely hand-painted in our workshops (1920)." This dish represents a beautiful naturalistic setting, trout evolving among aquatic flowers. Oval and scalloped, this beautiful porcelain is embellished on its periphery with a double gold net with some small small gaps. A lot of finesse for this splendid decorative dish with unusual dimensions and pattern and unusual colors. Shipping costs in France 20 euros.
