Description

Composite Atlas most certainly done late 19th century, early 20th century.

Large folio: 56, 5 x 43 cm. Full red sheepskin, decorated back, flat decorated with a large title in gold letter: Mapas Antiguos, binding with some friction but in very good condition. 27 cards in very beautiful colors of the time. Various restorations on the back of the cards, some small wettings in the margins, very suitable state for this atlas of charm. The atlas was numbered from 1 to 31. The maps with some restorations and consolidations present a choice starting with large historical paintings followed by maps of Ile de France, France, Europe and another section on Normandy and finally on the Greater Flanders. Other photos on request
