

Arlaud Miniature Young Woman On Harpsichord - Empire Period

4 300 EUR

Signature : Ls Arlaud

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ivory

Diameter : 10,7 cm

Description

Miniature round painted on ivory depicting a young woman leaning on her harpsichord by Louis-Ami Arlaud-Jurine. The young woman wearing a white dress bent a blue ribbon, a rose stapled to her bodice, sitting, the left elbow on a harpsichord, an open score, signed Ls Arlaud, presented in a gilded bronze ring. Ls Arlaud (Geneva 1751-1829) student of Jean Etienne Liotard.

You will find more pictures on our website:

www.remparts-antiquites.com

Dimensions: Frame diameter: 10.7 cm - Diameter at sight of the miniature: 7.6 cm

Dealer

Antiquaires David Balzeau & Pascale Brion

Les Remparts Antiquités Expertises Vannes

www.remparts-antiquites.com

Tel : 02 97 47 46 10

Mobile : 06 07 47 04 04

21, rue Francis Decker

Vannes 56000