Description

Beautiful portrait of a woman wearing a lace headdress and holding in her hands a letter on which we can distinguish the words "My Dear Mother" ... Anonymous production of the early nineteenth. This beautiful painting has been reentoile and is presented in an old key frame stucco and gilded wood. The whole is in good condition of house. Some minor wear and a tiny scratch on the nose (see detail photo) are noteworthy but do not hinder the aesthetics of the whole. A great finesse has been brought in the details of the clothes, the colors are deep.
