Description

Pair of candelabra with four arms of light, Louis XIV style, finely chiseled bronze and gilded with 2-tone mercury, matt and glossy burnished with agate. The baluster shaped barrel is richly decorated at the top with small medallions decorated with flowers, and rests on a bell base simulating a twisted foliage. The sinuous arms of light support gadrooned binets resting on bobèches simulating half shells; Gilding of exceptional quality in excellent state of preservation, only cleaned with some wear in the base of the bell.
