

Neo-renaissance Framework With Mascarons

380 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'état

Description

I confess to having a little trouble selling frames: for years, I stored them for my paintings and my faith! When I went to the depot with a list of 10 formats that I needed, I came back with 7 or 8 who were fine ...

But My Darling passing through the gallery the other started to talk to me about Diogenes syndrome and I made big decisions !!!

I continue with this rare neo-renaissance period Louis Philippe or rather Marie-Amélie, since it was his wife who initiated by his tastes this return to a style of past centuries that culminated with the famous "Henry II".

Perfect to present a work of the romantic period a painting of Devéria or a drawing of Victor Hugo, this frame with four spandrels in the shape of Ladies of the Renaissance can be used both
