Description

I continue to explore my cartons in the back of the shop and regularly discover small wonders such as watercolor enhanced by gouache by the Belgian artist Jef Clerens born in 1875.

She describes a saleswoman of four seasons pushing his cart on the pavement of a street with old houses. Worked on a very thin paper, she was stuck on a cardboard which she began to detach by curling down in the middle.

Two horizontal accidents (folds? Cuts?) In the lower third.

Large format: 58 X 39.5 cm. Circa 1920.
