PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Rare Baroque Cabinet Museum Original Eighteenth Century

6 498 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état, original, traces d'utilisation

Length : 210

Width : 76

Height : 222

Description

1307/5000 Baroque cabinet a solid piece of furniture with a wavy structure, the body adorned with polygonal cushions, veneered patterned oak, autumn, veneer, made in northern Europe in the mid-eighteenth century. lumber - Oak, veneer, wood carving - OAK, FALL AND OTHERS Width about 210, depth about 76, height about 222 cm. Key included Coronary cupboard with straight sides in front, finished by a richly profiled straight cornice, closed by two wings, with four drawers in the lower crown, supported on five spherical feet. The whole is plated with a patterned veneer, inlaid and veined. The facade is divided into two axes, three pilasters protruding in front of the body, crowned with capitals richly decorated, between which leaves with pseudo-oval panels. The bottom panel repeats the

Dealer

Antiques and Art-Lion

Sale of antiques, furniture, clocks, paintings

Mobile : +48608466740

12 Marca 211

Wejherowo 84-200

outline of the frame through the extended pilaster supports and the faces of the drawers to be removed. The broad lower crown, in the middle, is curved and protrudes forward, with a small rectangular field surrounded by a profiled slat. The body and the lower crown are decorated with polygonal cushions surrounded by profiled slats. The pillows on the wings of the door and the sides of the drawers are elongated, with a starry outline, inlaid in the center of a star pattern with four branches. Four shelves inside.