

Legros Of Anizy: A Rarity, Legitimist Porcelain Of Paris Plate, Circa 1820

220 EUR

Signature : Legros d'Anizy

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bel etat

Diameter : 22cm

Description

Beautiful porcelain plate from Paris of a very rare factory, circa 1820, the Rue du Cadran, impression of a new lithographic process due to Legros d'Anizy, (1772 - 1848) decorator having worked in Sèvres, see the article Regine de Plinval de Guillebon, Faience and porcelain of Paris 18th-19th centuries, Paris, Faton, pp. 380-382 in last picture.

The subject is ultra legitimist: Henry IV, the first of the Bourbons, playing amicably with his descendants

A porcelain rare double title; nice piece of collection, no signature.

22cm.

Very good condition, slight wear to gold, see photos.
