Description

Pair of large baroque armchairs in carved wood, richly decorated with bunches of grapes, vine leaves and stylized shells, armrests in the shape of dolphin heads (or tritons) or fantastic animals, resting on four winding feet, from Italy probably Venice, XIXth century. This pair of chairs is in very good condition and they are of exceptional quality. One chair is on wheels, the other is not. The trim has been redone. A note: traces of restorations including repairs on 2 back feet (see red arrows), some tiny slits, scratches, old wormholes, wear of time, look at the photos.
