Description

A Very Rare Oak Medieval Sculpture Of A Central Panel From An Altarpiece Of The Praying Virgin Standing On The Half Moon With The Snake. Still with a large part of the original polychrome. Carved Oak, Southern Netherlandish. First half 16th century. 61cm high 28cm deep. Price on Application. It is interesting to see that a similar panel with the virgin and child is also as a central panel in an Antwerp Altarpiece dating from circa 1520. This altarpiece is now in Västerås in Sweden. A praying virgin standing on half a moon with snake you can find also on an Antwerp altarpiece dating from the first half of the 16th century. Now in the church of Notre-Dame in Ternant France.
