Description

Superb brass ladle beaten from the XVIII century to the crowned R plus another illegible punch, that of the master dinandier. The crowned R would be a tax stamp on copper, an equivalent of the crowned 1745 1749 C established under Louis XV, having had short time because very unpopular. It seems that the crowned R is older, without more information. Length: 50 cm. Bowl diameter: 12.3 cm. This object is in very good condition.
