Description

I found these works in the same drawing board as academies late nineteenth very beautiful too, but hyper classic ... I do not think it's the same hand, even if a painter can evolve during his life. In any case, neither one nor the other being signed, it does not change much to the problem! These "Cubist Nudes" date visibly from the 30s, are made on free canvas and have unfortunately been badly preserved with gaps on traces of folds. They also deserve a cleaning and a varnish. I begin with the narrowest, oil on canvas 45 X 33 cm, many traces of folds with gaps, representing a nude sitting, perhaps on the edge of a bathtub, grabbing a garment.
