Dancer - Guy Seradour (1922-2007)

720 EUR

Signature : Guy Seradour

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Pastel

Length : 53,5cm

Height : 45,5cm

Description

Pastel under glass in its original setting of Guy Seradour, signed lower left, mid 20th century. In the photos there are reflections from the glass, you can contact me for more details. Dimensions: - at sight, height: 31,5cm, length: 39,5cm - with the frame: height 45,5cm, length: 53,5cm Guy Seradour enters the school of the Beaux-Arts of Paris in 1939, where he will only stay a quarter, preferring to work alone. The Gallery ROMANET, in Algiers, organizes in 1940 his first exhibition, He is not yet 18 years old. In 1955, the Parisian critic discovers it during his exhibition at BERNHEIM-Jeune and salutes him as a leading artist. It is at this time, with its austere landscapes, its characters a little misérabilistes and its superb portraits of all Paris, that begins what will make the celebrity of Guy

Dealer

Le Soleil Rouge
Antiquaire généraliste
Tel : 06 87 79 11 59

90 rue Jaboulay
Lyon 69007

SERADOUR a little everywhere in the world. In 1965, the Museum of Modern Art of the City of Paris, makes a first acquisition: "The Lampista" .It exhibits in many salons in France, as well as in many foreign countries including Belgium, England, United States, Sweden, Japan, Iran. It is present in many museums around the world, and in many private collections. In a resolutely drawn technique, the painter likes to grasp the movement of his models.