

Lyre Clock

3 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : 24

Width : 11,5

Height : 41

Description

Empire clock in gilded and chiseled bronze, presents two cherubs carrying a lyre decorated with palmettes, griffon heads and Pegasus at its summit. Original oval base in gilded bronze decorated with leaves, flowers and frieze of palmettes Annular white enamel dial with Roman numerals for hours, signed Comminges Palais Royal N ° 62. Breguet hands. Silk suspension movement, eight-day running time

Dealer

Antic'Tac

Specialist in clocks

Tel : 01 42 61 57 16

9 rue de Beaujolais

Paris 75001