Description

Important pair of enamelled lamps decorated with multicolored enamels drawing flowers and fruits. They are decorated with shades days themselves decorated with the same patterns, decorated with flowers and colorful fruits. Note that each of these shades weigh several pounds.

the set is superb and creates a beautiful indirect light because these lampshades are not translucent and do not let the light but reflect. the rendering is superb.

a very nice Asian work of the 1950s. It is quite remarkable work and it is the first time we meet shades of this type.

lamps rest on exotic wood pedestals. electricity has been revised and works. a beautiful pair of enamel lamps, very decorative and very colorful.
